THIS IS THE KINGS ARMS.

The Kings Arms, a quintessential real-ale pub located in one of the most historic streets in London.

Roupell Street is a conservation area maintaining it's 19th century look and feel and has featured in many TV shows and movies.

Our multi-winning “pub of the year” site is about as traditional as traditional pubs get, but with a Thai twist coming out of its popular kitchen too. We have 8 real ale pumps and a constantly evolving beer list served from the architecturally wonderful backstreets of Waterloo, overall making The Kings Arms a unique experience.

The Kings Arms has two private rooms available for team drinks, smaller group gathering and private dining.

Private room capacities:

- Roupell's Room... 20 to 30 people
- Bonsie's Room... 8 to 15 people
